

Christel Nani: A Journey of Forgiveness: "The Way" April 2017

Your intentions for healing will be carried by Christel Nani along the Camino in April 2017 where they will be brought to the Cathedral de Santiago in Spain. They will be blessed and filled with healing energy as a way of saying, "enough, the price is paid, it is over," so you can move forward and add light to our world.

These mistakes from my past haunt me and leave me with guilt and regret. I can't seem to let them go or forgive myself. Please take them to the Pilgrim's Mass:

Prayer for Accepting Forgiveness

Dear God:

By writing these transgressions, I acknowledge that you can heal my heart of the burden of guilt I have carried. I ask and accept your blessing and healing on these transgressions and I will follow your guidance for anything I need to do to correct this wrong or make amends. I accept your grace and love today and ask your help to feel forgiven. Amen.
